DEPUTY DIRECTOR OF MOVEMENT BUILDING

Together for Girls
c/o UNAID
Hiring Manager

March 25, 2025

Dear Hiring Manager,

I am writing to express my interest in the Deputy Director of Movement Building position, Brave Movement at Together for Girls. With a BA in Education and three years experience in prevention of gender-base and sexual violence, I am excited about the opportunity to leverage my skills and passion for supporting survivors and fostering positive change to end gender-based violence within the Brave Movement. I bring over six years of dedicated experience in social services where I honed my community engagement, advocacy, and project management skills in the private-public sector as reflected in my resume, with an additional five years prior experience in direct social services providing support and advocacy. Please note my brief career break to engage in international work exchange and unique seasonal employment opportunities, realigning priorities, strengthening skills, and deepening relationships.

The value I bring to this role includes:

1. Proven track record in mobilizing diverse communities and fostering partnerships to drive impactful advocacy efforts.
2. Strong project management skills to oversee the delivery of evidence-based programs and movement-building strategies to support the development of Brave Platforms.
3. Commitment to creating safe, trauma-informed spaces for survivor advocates and allies, aligning with the mission and values of Together for Girls and the Brave Movement.

I would welcome the chance to discuss how my experiences align with the needs of your team further and am keen on the opportunity to contribute to the incredible work at Together for Girls. I look forward to the possibility of scheduling an interview to explore this exciting opportunity further.

Warm regards,

Sydney Roberts
